

Co-Existent Disease in Migraine

THE AAN

ENCOUNTER KIT
HEADACHE

A Guide to the Preventive Treatment of Migraine Headache in the Presence of Co-Existent Disease
(Based on the U.S. Headache Consortium's Evidence-Based Guidelines)

CONDITION	CONSIDER USING	CONSIDER AVOIDING
Anxiety	Beta Blocker Sedating Tricyclic Anti-depressant
Asthma		Beta Blocker
Bipolar Disorder	Divalproex sodium
Coronary Artery Disease	Beta Blocker Calcium Channel Medication
Depression	Tricyclic Anti-depressant Monoamine Oxidase inhibitor*
Diabetes		Beta Blocker
Epilepsy	Divalproex sodium	Tricyclic Anti-depressant
Hypertension	Beta Blocker Calcium Channel Medication
Raynaud's Disease	Calcium Channel Medication	Beta Blocker
Mitral Valve Prolapse	Beta Blocker
Pregnancy	Non-pharmacologic therapy
Stroke	Aspirin Nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory medication
Renal Disease		Nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory medication Methysergide

Note poor risk-benefit ratio. Reserve for special circumstances only.*