Office of the Future Pavilion

Join us in this new and exciting concept for the AAN’s Exhibit Hall! The Office of the Future will have the look and feel of a physician’s office to showcase new technologies that could be utilized in office settings. The area will educate attendees about technology as well as encourage participation in group discussions about how successfully and effectively peers have been able to implement new and emerging technologies in practice.

Attendees will be able to explore a wide spectrum of office products.

- Try ergonomic office furniture
- Test technological advance tele-medicine
- Learn about new tools to communicate about patient and family education
- Discover innovation in computer software

Sponsorship Levels

Gold Sponsor Level $15,000:

- Logo placement on footprints* near the area
- Logo recognition on banner above the pavilion
- Pavilion general signage recognition
- Logo placement in the AAN’s Exhibit Guide promoting the pavilion
- Acknowledgement in pre-event marketing
- Equipment showcased in office area
- Announcement recognition in the Exhibit Hall

Silver Sponsor Level $5,000:

- Pavilion general signage recognition
- Acknowledgment in pre-event marketing
- Company name on banner above pavilion

In-kind Donation Recognition:

- Could include furnishing, lighting, attendee giveaway, etc.

Showcasing Equipment in the Area:

Those wishing to display their equipment in the area, but not sponsor the area, should contact Gretchen.

Sponsorship price: $25,000

*Footprints can be corporate or product logo

Headshot Lounge Sponsorship

Two photographers will be capturing high-end professional headshots and delivering them through email. Don’t miss the opportunity to sponsor this huge Exhibit Hall attendee draw!

- Signs in headshot lounge area
- Company logo in email sent to attendees with their picture attached
- Recognition in on-site publications

For more information:

Gretchen Liedl
Manager, Exhibits and Sponsorship
gliedl@aan.com
(612) 928-6015